

T'omboys, Butches, T'rans, Women BDSMers

Versions of female masculinity

Delfy lives in a small village in Huelva, Andalucia. Spain.

Her mind has always been considered masculine although she has a female body.

She never identified herself as a girl.

She always felt like a man, she likes it and it is something that is inside her.

I like to look slightly like a faggot too.

I also like much more to be queer rather than transsexual.

I love being fairy.

I really like the fact that I have breasts but at the same time the other person look at me as being masculine.

This production is based on the real testimonies of Delfy, Leticia, Emmanuelle and Dita Bi Teese about their female masculinity.
